SOUTH DARLEY C.E. PRIMARY SCHOOL

Celebrating our Week

Friday 2nd December 2016

Infants

Looking back over last week

This week the infant class have been practicing hard for their nativity. The children have also made angels for the Sainsbury's Christmas tree—you can see their work in Sainsbury's!

Looking forward to next week

Next week is all about the nativity! There will be a dress rehearsal, singing and practising their lines.

Best work of the week went to Bella, Lilly and Olivia.

Juniors

Looking back over last week

Juniors have written instructions on how to make Viking helmets. They have also been looking at the book 'Coming Home' by Michael Morpurgo—the basis of the 2016 Waitrose Christmas advert. Juniors have made decorations for the Sainsbury's Christmas tree—you can see their work in Sainsbury's!

Looking forward to next week

Next week Juniors will be supporting the infants at their nativity and will be continuing their work based on 'Coming Home'. They will also be planning their Viking feast.

Best work of the week went to Sam, Jacob, Evie, Leah, Nancy and Florence
